

Never before have you had access to all three of Canada's Aboriginal Peoples in one seminar!

Ultimate Aboriginal Awareness Seminar

Join presenters from all three of Canada's Aboriginal Peoples - Métis, Inuit, First Nation - as they help participants get to know, understand and more importantly learn how to build relationships with Canada's Aboriginal Peoples. Participants will be provided with a neutral place to review historical events significant to First Nations, Métis, and Inuit and their relation to the present economic environment; explore critical issues of taxation, housing, arctic sovereignty, climate change in the North and education; show how working with Aboriginal Peoples can enhance your career and business; and help you understand cross-cultural perspectives.
